

ANIMAL TALES: A LION’S TRIUMPH
MATTHEW 28, MARK 16, LUKE 24, JOHN 20
STUDY GUIDE

4.3.21

What is an “apex predator?”

How does Jesus fit the idea of an apex predator?

How has Jesus destroyed sin?

How has Jesus destroyed the fear (the sting) of death?

How does the complete triumph of Jesus Christ resonate with you?
Are you living your life with an attitude of triumph?

What is your favorite part of the “Holy Week” (Palm Sunday through Easter) story? Why does that part of the narrative mean so much to you?

If you could be any of the animals we’ve described this week — the colt that brought Jesus into Jerusalem, the lamb whose blood gave life, or the lion who triumphed over all his enemies, which would you want to be? Which story connected with you the most?
