

THE RADICAL RABBI: A RADICAL PRESENCE
MARK 4:35-41
STUDY GUIDE

5.30.21

What had Jesus been doing throughout the course of this day before this story of Jesus calming the storm?

Why is Mark's placing the parable of the mustard seed right before this moment so significant?

Of what were the disciples most afraid as they battled the storm?

What did Jesus want them to understand about himself? What did he want them to understand about their lives?

Do you struggle with faith in the storms of your life? How does hearing this story help?

What are three (3) considerations to take with us from this story?

1-

2-

3-

How would you describe God to a friend? How do you describe God to yourself? How does your description of God impact your daily life?