

“THE BIG QUESTIONS — AN INTRODUCTION”

Study Guide

5.5.19

If you're a parent, what's the silliest question you ever had your kids ask? If you're not a parent, what's the silliest question you ever heard growing up (that you asked, that you heard in school, that you heard one of your siblings ask)?

Was there a question that you needed the answer to before you became a Christian? If so, what was it?

What question(s) do you continue to have about God, Jesus Christ or the Bible?

What are four considerations we should keep in mind as questions come our way?
