

THE RADICAL RABBI: “A RADICAL PERSPECTIVE” STUDY GUIDE

7.19.20

Do you like reruns — either reading a favorite book several times or watching a TV show or movie over and over again? If so, why do you think you enjoy that experience so much?

Is there a section of Scripture — a verse, a story, a chapter — that you have found yourself going back to again and again and again? What Scripture is it? Why do you think that Scripture grabs you?

How does John the Baptist’s identifying Jesus as the “Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world” connect with you?

How does John the Baptist declaring of Jesus that he is “God’s chosen One” connect with you?

How does John the Baptist telling his disciples, “He must become more and I must become less,” Jesus must increase and he must decrease, connect with you?

Why do you think God made you?

How can you see yourself increasing Jesus with your life?

How can you see yourself increasing Jesus with your time?

How can you see yourself increasing Jesus with your resources?

When you look at the world today, is there one “symptom” of spiritual illness that resonates with you, that makes you want to do something to address it? How would you like your church family to help?
