

QUESTION 15:
“GOD, THE GOSPEL . . . AND TREES?”
STUDY GUIDE
(Psalm 1)
9.1.19

What are the two most basic natural expectations when one plants a tree?

1)

2)

What is the progression of a life’s falling away from the blessing of God?

1)

2)

3)

According to this Psalm, what is the outcome of a life rooted in the delights of meditating on God’s word?

1)

3)

What is your life “rooted” in? In other words, there are many things that take our time and attention. But in what “soil” have you planted your life? What is the basis for your outlooks, your perspectives, your responses, as you go through your days?

What brings your life “delight?”

Does God’s Word bring you joy? Do you delight in spending time in the Scriptures? Do you enjoy Bible reading and Bible study? Would you consider it a centerpiece in your life?

What is your relationship to the world? How does that compare to your relationship with God, particularly through his Word?

How can you build more time into your life to root yourself in God’s Word?
