TEXT: MATTHEW 15:29-38

29- Jesus left there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on a mountainside and sat down.

30- Great crowds came to him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute and many others, and laid them at his feet; and he healed them.

31- The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

32- Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way."

33- His disciples answered, "Where could we get enough bread in this remote place to feed such a crowd?"

34- "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked. "Seven," they replied, "and a few small fish."

35- He told the crowd to sit down on the ground.

36- Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and when he had given thanks, he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people. They all ate and were satisfied.

37- Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

38- The number of those who ate was four thousand men, besides women and children.

QUESTIONS:

Why does God "repeat Himself" in the form of reruns?

Have you ever experienced a "rerun" from God in your own life? What did you learn, or relearn, from that experience?

How has your life in Christ changed, how has your life in Christ become different, over the last week? The last month? The last year?

If you are not experiencing or have not experienced change in your life with Christ, why do you think that has not happened? Do you desire change in your life? How can this church family come alongside you to support you at this time?
